

Brentwood Town Centre Design Plan

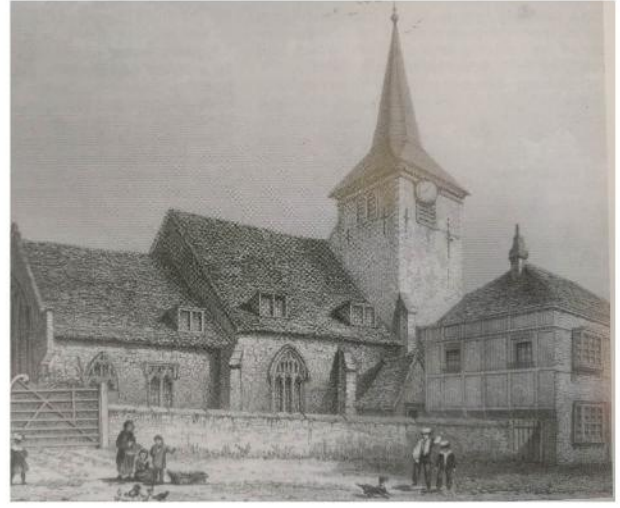

Brentwood Town Centre Conservation Area and listed buildings

Memorial to William Hunter, protestant martyr

Brentwood High Street, c.1906

St Thomas Chapel

Brentwood High Street early 20th century

The parade cinema near Brentwood railway station

Historic evolution

Brentwood is, at its heart, a medieval town that developed along the old Roman road from London to Colchester, which followed a series of ridges on higher ground.

The town was a successful trading point and developed as a series of burgage plots congregated around the market place. The evolution of this built form remains legible today.

1717

1777

1841-1852

2016

